THE ODYSSEY 1966

Salome,

Editor - Myra Harold

Dedication

1966 Board Members

This, the 1966 Odyssey, is dedicated to the people who, over the past decade, have served as members of the Board of Education of the Northern Yuma County Union High School District. In their payless, often thankless service, they have seen to the building, staffing and operation of our school. We hope this may in some small way make them aware that their efforts have been appreciated.

MR. ROBERT W. CHARMAN

Robert W. Charman

The dedication of this year's annual to the Board of Education is to be applauded. Let each reader of the book pause to reflect for a moment upon the long hours of work given by these people over the years that our school and its operation might be possible. This service has been without pay, ofttimes at considerable personal inconvenience, for little thanks and not a little criticism. Let us hope that this dedication may help to say thanks.

Editor's Message

This yearbook was made for you, the Student Body of Salome High. It will be your book of memories for the school year 1966.

My only wish is that you enjoy it more each time you look through it.

I want to thank my hard-working staff, our advisor and the many others who used their own time to help complete our 1966 ODYSSEY.

MYRA HAROLD

Senior Class Prophecy

Hello there 66'ers! This is your everloving big daddy'o, "conscience" projecting 10 years into your future and digging you squares to see if you still gyrate to Beattle music.

There's Farr, but yet so near with that's "what's up front that counts" look.

There's that prettiest cattle queen, Myra, riding a gold plated jeep with her Winston smoking foreman at the wheel, heading for a champaignepool at her "Apartment House of the Desert" out Wenden way.

Man, what a racket from that Quartzite ranch,-must be a real swinging ball! Nope, only old Everett complimenting his wife on her biscuits.

Duck, wow, what a pair of kooky pilots. Oh, I see Orley and Randy still arguing over who gets in the basketball's free throw area for 3 seconds.

What's that over by the Big Q? -- the Elementary School? Nope, it's Carole McCauley's residence. The little old woman in a Quartzsite shoe.

Paper work and what a mess!--laughter, giggles, and fouled up orders; Anchors to the Air Force, backpacks to the Navy, and Submarines to the Marines.--That's Jackie at the head of the Military Logistic Service.

Look at that little guy down there beating that little white ball all over that field and making those two little boys chase it while he rides. Hey, that's Crazy Legs Craig, the Dick Wick Hall Pro.

Reading my Denver Post, I see an article for Women's Apparel as illustrated by the internationally renowned artist, Susan Sparks.

"Early to bed and early to rise sure opens a young girl's eyes after marriage. There's Elaine rushing her three kids off to school, Bill off to work, and putting the all-automatic housewife to work as she takes off to operate her beauty culture school.

Hey, I could have sworn I saw a Raven go into Mr. Charman's window. No, it's just Pablo. He couldn't find Mr. Wease for his keys so he could get the socks for the team.

Senior Will

I, RANDY MICHELS, being of sound mind!!, will my basketball suit to Becky Reese and my curly hair to Mr. Craig.

I, JACKIE WALTERS, hereby will my ability to always get into trouble and to laugh even during hard times, to any poor person who is worse off than I.

I, ELAINE SWEETLAND, will my ability to finish school to all high-school dropouts.

I, ORLEY DOLLAR, being of sound mind and body, will my height to Charley Craig and Ronnie Dearinger.

I, CAROLE MC CAULEY, being of sound mind and body, will all my empty hair spray cans to Mr. Craig.

I, BILL FARR, being of unsound mind and body, will Mr. Craig all of my clippings after a haircut.

I, MYRA HAROLD, will my ability to walk on the grass and get away with it to Alice Anglin and my smile to Robin Grumbles.

I, SUSAN SPARKS, being of sound mind (?) will my intense dislike for school to my sister, -not that she needs it.

I, EVERETT COWELL, being of sound mind and body, will my great sense of humor to Mrs. Ross and Miss Gallardo.

I, WILLIAM C. CRAIG, being of sound mind and body, do bequeath my knee braces to my brother, Charles David, and my ability to make friends to anyone who thinks he or she, has too many.

I, PABLO FALCON, JR., being of sound mind and body, will all my abilities to anyone who can type this will without any mistakes.

"Moonlight and Roses"

On March 20, 1965, the Salome High School Junior Class honored the seniors by holding the Senior Banquet. Mr. Charman gave an inspiring speech, "A New Dawn For Tomorrow," directed to the students, parents and faculty in general.

The decorations were very beautiful with pink roses, yellow quarter moons glittering with silver sparkle, and crepe paper streaming down the walls. The dinner was delicious; it consisted of filet mignon, baked potato, green beans, salad, cake with strawberry ice-cream filling, coffee or tea.

J. Runow, J. Rogers, V. Scott, R. Armstrong, B. Sweetland, G. Blair, C. Walker, J. Rogers, N. McCauley, L. Rodriquez-not shown.

C. Mixon, J. Charman, D. Breeden, A. Blair, A. Anglin: Head Waitress.

Myra Harold thanked Mrs. Turner, sponsor, on behalf of the junior class.

Preparing the table: A. Blair, D. Breeden, J. Walters, M. Harold, S. Sparks.

During the last few moments before the Banquet, the students look over their programs.

Senior Field Trip 1965

"Ah, so sweet!"

"I'm looking for a comb, what are you looking for?"

"I'll never volunteer to be scout again."

"I didn't do it!"

"All chiefs and no Indians!"

"Rock A Bye Baby."

"I eat my Wheaties!"

"Pocahontas, where are you?"

"Like Jonah and de whale."

"If it's work, forget it!"

This is a hard hat to earn. Wear it proudly. And after you've laid it aside, be sure to keep in mind the things you've learned that made it possible for you to wear your cap and gown — diligence, hard work, studiousness and keeping a goal always before you. Remember these and you'll wear hats that are much harder to earn in life.

To Bert
A swell guy
who I like a lot.
And like best a lot of fun this year and I hope
we can have fun next year.
Be a good guy a stay out of trouble
Randy

Bert,
You're really a neat guy with it made. Your sense of humor & personality really are a team !! Best of luck in the future. Janet

Bert,
A neat nice guy
